Charleston Native Eric Main

Joins Harbor National Bank As Vice-President

Charleston, S.C. – July 20, 2006 – Harbor National Bank continues to attract local banking executives to its team, including Charleston native Eric Main, who joins the bank this week as Vice-President and Commercial Loan Officer.

Main will work from the bank's downtown location at 134 Meeting Street and will focus on commercial lending.

Main has 13 years of banking experience. He served as VP / Private Client Advisor with SunTrust Bank in St. Simons Island, GA and was Branch Manager / Loan Officer for NBSC in Charleston.

He holds an MBA from The Citadel, earned a B.A.-degree from Emory University and is a graduate of Middleton High School in Charleston.

During his banking career, Main has been an active volunteer with United Way and board member with various charitable groups.. He is a 2005 graduate of Leadership Georgia.

About Harbor National Bank

Harbor National Bank opened its doors in March 2006 after posting a private stock offering of $29.3 million, the second highest amount ever raised by a community bank in South Carolina.

The bank executive staff and board of directors consists of all local residents of the Lowcountry, including several long-time Charleston area banking executives who worked together at SouthTrust Bank of Charleston.

Harbor National Bank's focused market segments include commercial lending, residential mortgage lending, business banking, professional banking and consumer lending. The bank's business strengths come from local decision making and strong local relationships already in place in the community.
